Is This the Last War? Many are hoping this is our las war. On what ground does this hope rest? Unless we find out the cause and apply the remedy, there will be another war or something just as bad another war or something just as bad in less than fifty years.

The real cause and only cure for such is vividly shown in Mahaffey's book, What Ails the World. It is a book that came, and like Peter's sheet let down from heaven, some of its contents are not palatable to a fastidious age. Every copy sold at our local book store has cost $2.00 m advertising. That is to say: If Mr. Mahaffey had put a $2.00 bill in each copy and sold them at 1 cent each, he would now be 30 cents better off than he is. This looks discouraging to the publisher of a timely book, but Mr. Mahaffey is a man who speaks and writes.

PREVIOUS TO APRIL 7, 1917

PREVIOUS to April 7, 1917, when the United States entered the war, there were absolutely no conditions at-tached to Mutual Benefit Life Insurance contracts except that the premium contracts except that the premium must be paid and the policy holder must not commit suicide within the first twelve months. At the end of 12 months the paying of premiums was the only condition. After war was declared an extra premium was charged on all policies, issued to men entering the army, but none on those issued previous to April 7, 1917. The extra premium was fixed at $37.50 per $1,000 for the first year, and notwithstanding for the first year, and notwithstanding the extra charge many millions of new insurance have been issued to

Clothes for Your Boy Ouite true, this store caters very much to the grown-up Men who want the Best in Clothing, Hats, Shoes, Underwear, and Furnishings, but at the same time we never forget

YOUNGER GENTLEMEN OF THE FAMILY. They must be properly clothed-Yes, neatly and stylishly clothed in clothes that are made with a purpose other than "just to sell." We have Boys' Clothing that would be quite satisfactory to many well dressed men if sizes and styles were for older folks. "DUBBELWEAR" "DUBBELBILT" We sell both brands of Boys' Clothing-One is made up of better goods than the other-Both are worth every cent at which they are priced, as a critical inspection will convince almost any one who is a judge of clothing values—We have DUBBELBILT SUITS—In Grays, Brown, Greens—At $9.75, $12.75 and $16.75. DUBBELWEAR SUITS-In Blue Serges, Grays, Browns and pleasing Mixtures-Priced from $5.50 to $10.00 a Suit.

BOYS' OVERCOATS-Priced at $5.00 to $17.50 MACKINAWS-Some beauties, just in Sizes range up to 18 years.

JUVENILE SUITS—For the little fellows, who want to be just as well dressed as the older boys-$6.50 and $7.00.
